

CLAYTON STIVER

NWA Seal of Approval

AMS Seal of Approval

A.P. Award winner

EXPERIENCE

Meteorologist/Chief Weather Technology Officer

WVIR-TV

- Anchor, forecast and produce all weekend sunrise and evening weathercasts.
- Leads weather team in creating forecast and coverage plan for active weather.
- In charge of expanding WSI graphics content.
- Oversees weather branding approach on social media posts and interaction.
- Handles most school visits and community group presentations.
- Fills-in for weekday newscasts.

2015 - Present
Charlottesville, VA

Chief Meteorologist

NH1 News Network

- Broadcasted weather for weekday 5-6:30pm and 10-11pm newscasts.
- Sole meteorologist for this startup station.
- Built the weather department from the ground up.
- Assisted in customizing AccuWeather Storyteller to use for weathercasts.
- Recorded radio forecasts every weekday along with DJ interviews every Wednesday.
- Posted multiple Facebook, Twitter and website updates on a daily basis.

2014 - 2015
Concord, NH

Weekend Meteorologist

WVIR-TV

- Broadcasted weather for all weekend sunrise and evening newscasts.
- Produced graphics on weekdays and assisted weekday meteorologist.
- Customized layout and selected graphics for a 24 hour weather channel.
- Wrote a severe weather guide to assist in forecasting thunderstorm and tornado threats.
- Delivered weather presentations to schools and community groups.

2006 - 2014
Charlottesville, VA

Chief Weathercaster

WEIU-TV

- Broadcast weather for a thirty minute newscast every weekday on this PBS station.
- Performed severe weather cut-ins.
- Ran the weather department as part of the temporary paid internship.

2006
Charleston, IL

Meteorology Internship

WCAU-TV

2005
Philadelphia, PA

EDUCATION

Mississippi State University

- 2007 Bachelor of Science in Geosciences, Meteorology concentration.

Penn State University

- 2005 Bachelor of Arts in Journalism, minor in Geography.