

PAUL ADLER

EMPLOYMENT

---

ANCHOR/REPORTER 2007-PRESENT
KSPR/KY3 Springfield, MO
Co-anchor top rated M-F morning cast, "Ozarks Today"; review scripts; set up interviews; update KY3.com; cover breaking news, including field reporting during record-breaking January 2008 tornado outbreak; stories done for KY3 have appeared on CNN, MSNBC, and AgDay, including a live appearance on MSNBC to introduce a piece and participate in a question and answer session.

ANCHOR/REPORTER 1996-2007
WKRC-TV Cincinnati, OH
Anchored weekend news starting in 2000; filled in for M-F morning show; consistently developed sources and enterprising story ideas; started the Tri-State Secret Safe Place for Newborns, a program developed by WKRC with law enforcement, hospitals, and government agencies; oversaw the Local 12 Foster Care Phone Bank, an on-air, all day effort to reach potential foster families in the area; worked with public and private agencies, including Public Television, to coordinate story production, answer technical questions, and find host studios.

REPORTER/ANCHOR 1992-1996
WLUK-TV Green Bay, WI
Created regular city hall and government beat; produced stories honored by state associations; went live regularly at 5, 6, and 10 p.m.; anchored weekday and weekend newscasts.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

REPORTER/ANCHOR WTHI-TV
Terre Haute, IN
Managed coverage of multiple counties in Illinois; anchored morning, noon, and weekend newscasts; worked with Terre Haute officials as part of city hall beat.

GA REPORTER/WEEKEND ANCHOR/PRODUCER/PHOTOGRAPHY/ASSIGNMENT EDITOR
KRCG-TV Jefferson City, MO

GA REPORTER/PRODUCER/MORNING AND NOON WEEKDAY ANCHOR
KOMU-TV Columbia, MO

EDUCATION

---

Bachelor of Journalism
Minor in History
University of Missouri-Columbia

AWARDS

---

- 2013-Emmy, Best Newscast
- 2012-Regional Murrow, Breaking News Coverage for "The Search For Survivors; Joplin Tornado"
- 2012-Missouri Broadcasters Association, First Place "Spot News"
- Missouri Broadcasters Association; the months-long investigation about people stealing Salvation Army donations led to the installation of security cameras at the facility and the appointment of Paul to the Salvation Army Advisory Board
- Three-time honoree by the Associated Press for being one of Ohio's best reporters
Multiple award winner and nominee in Regional Emmy competition